Dear Cecil:

Thank you for your ongoing generosity and for your final payment of $50,000.00 designated toward your amazing $250,000.00 commitment to the Harry F. Byrd, Jr. School of Business-Business Symposium. On behalf of the students, faculty and staff of Shenandoah University, we are deeply grateful for your continued support. Friends like you play a vital role in the success of our students, and we appreciate your partnership.

Shenandoah University's mission to educate and inspire continues, despite COVID-19. Our SU family has remained safe as students successfully completed the Spring Semester with online classes. We celebrated our 2020 graduates with a virtual graduation on May 16, and we look forward to honoring them in person on October 18. We remain dedicated to the needs and safety of our current students as well as those of our future Hornets as faculty and staff continue to work remotely. Our university leadership remains in constant communication regarding new developments during these unprecedented times while planning for a safe return to campus. Please keep in touch with Shenandoah's latest announcements regarding COVID-19 by visiting https://www.su.edu/blog/category/health/coronavirus.

Thank you for your devotion to Shenandoah University and our students, and please stay well.

Sincerely,

Mitchell L. Moore
